

CHANNELVIEW ISD 2019 BOND

The Channelview ISD Board of Trustees voted unanimously to call a $195.4 million bond election, the District's first in 10 years, to be held on May 4, 2019.

WHAT'S PROPOSED: $195,400,000

Replacement Schools: $79,921,000

These projects will address both the aging needs of these campuses and the need for additional capacity at the elementary level.

- Replacement school for DeZavala Elementary
- Replacement school to combine Cobb Elementary and Schochler Elementary

CHS Growth & Program Expansion: $39,698,000

These projects will enhance student programming opportunities and increase capacity at CHS.

- New Career & Technical Education (CTE) Center Addition
- New Auditorium
- Athletic Additions & Renovations

Campus Renovations: $61,598,000

This will cover items that are aging or deficient to extend the life of each campus. Renovations will include repairs, upgrades, or replacements to:

- HVAC & Electrical Systems
- Roofing & Plumbing
- Driveways & Parking
- Interior Finishes

Safety & Security: $3,877,000

- Upgraded controlled entrances at each campus
- Security cameras district-wide
